Upon admission to the UTP, each candidate is required to fulfill all health requirements by completing the Health Declaration Form. The information provided must be accurate and students will be held responsible for any discrepancies discovered later regarding their health condition.

All students must undergo a mandatory quarantine and medical examination upon arrival in Malaysia and must pass the medical examination before UTP can proceed with their registration. The cost for quarantine is to be borne by the students themselves, and students must abide by all the instructions and regulations set by the Government of Malaysia pertaining the mandatory quarantine and all requirements for entry to Malaysia. The medical check-up must be conducted at an EMGS panel clinic in Malaysia.

Any candidate found to have any of the diseases or disorders (including COVID-19 related conditions) that prevents registration during verification by UTP's Health Centre or through random health assessments, will not be admitted to the University. International students will be required to return to their home country at their own expense and UTP will not be held responsible for any costs incurred.

5. RELIABILITY OF INFORMATION

All information and documents submitted to UTP must be true and accurate. Submission of incorrect information or forged documents will result in rejection of your application denial of registration, with no refund of any fees paid.

6. CANCELLATION OF OFFER / STUDY

UTP reserves the rights to withdraw the offer if any information or document(s) submitted is UTP found to be untrue. UTP may also, at its discretion terminate a student's enrolment at any time if the student fails to meet the University's enrollment requirements. Terminated students will NOT be refunded all fees paid.

7. REGISTRATION & TUITION FEES

International students who have arrived in Malaysia are required to undergo the medical check-up within 7 days of arrival. If the medical report indicates that you fail or are deemed unfit to study in Malaysia (as determined by the medical officer), you will not be registered as a UTP student and will be required to return to your home country within the specified timeframe from your arrival date.

This requirement applies even if you have already made payments, such as the Visa Approval Letter (VAL), "Single Entry Visa" (SEV), flight ticket, etc. All such expenses will be borne by the student and are non-refundable.

7.1 Payment of Tuition Fees

i. Sponsored Students
Students are fully responsible for their sponsor's failure to settle any outstanding amounts during their study in UTP.

ii. Non-Sponsored Students
Students and/or their parents/guardian are responsible to bear all cost incurred during their period of study in UTP. Students are also required to submit a financial affidavit prior registration in UTP.

Please refer to Appendix I for details on tuition fees.

PREPARATION TO STUDY IN MALAYSIA

Introduction

When you arrive, many things about the way of life in Malaysia may seem unfamiliar to you. You will need to know more about the rules and regulation affecting your stay if you are to proceed smoothly to the completion of your studies. In addition, all new overseas students are required to attend an orientation programmme before the beginning of the semester.

Prior Leaving Home Country

Before leaving your country, please ensure that all required document(s) for entry to Malaysia are in your

Student Pass

Student Pass is issued based on the offer for study at UTP. The issuance of the pass is governed by the following conditions:

- Students must not be involved in any activities against the laws and regulations of Malaysia.
- Approval of student pass can be revoked or withdrawn if the pass holder fails in their examination or defies any conditions specified by UTP and the Government of Malaysia.
- Students are not permitted to be involved in any employment activities except those who must undergo industrial training, unless it is a pre-requisite of the study.
- Students must return to their home country upon completion of their studies.

Student Pass is not transferable. The pass will be revoked if student change to other institution/universities. Should the student choose to transfer to another institution/university, the student will be required to return to their home country and apply for a new student pass under the new institution/university.

Advice to Students

Students who have been accepted to UTP must ensure that they have all the necessary documents and personal effects ready well before the time of departure. Students are advised on the following:

- Bring along documents i.e. flight ticket, passport, Visa Approval Letter, Offer Letter from UTP, original and copies of academic qualifications.
- Bring suitable clothing and medication if you are suffering from specific illness.
- Contraband such as drugs is not allowed into the country. Neither are perishable food, animals, and plants.

- Inform UTP Admission Officer of your arrival details i.e. flight numbers, date of departure and expected date and time of arrival at least 2 WEEKS BEFORE leaving your home country.

Prohibition on Drug Use in Laws

Drug-related laws in Malaysia are extremely strict and penalties for offences are severe, including long-term imprisonment and even the death penalty for trafficking. Students who need to carry prescribed medication must have a medical reference letter from a licensed doctor. Drugs such as cannabis, LSD, and cocaine are illegal and strictly prohibited. The Customs Department and Police have full authority to search your luggage and possessions for illegal drugs.

Accommodation

Please note that on-campus hostels are only available for Foundation and Undergraduate students (FSUG). Accommodation is not provided by the University for Postgraduate students. Therefore, you are required to arrange your own accommodation prior to your arrival at UTP.

Cost of Living Allowance

Students are advised to allocate adequate fund for daily expenses while waiting for their financial assistance scheme, scholarship or study loan approval and payment. The average cost of living expenses at the university ranges from RM 500 – RM 1,000 per month (USD125 – USD250 per month).

University's Act, Rules, Regulations and Procedure
Students are subject to the University's Acts, rules, regulations, and procedures as imposed by the University.

Appearance
Students are required to adhere to Students Dress Code while they are within the University's vicinity. Students Card/Matric card must be worn at all times.
